-----------------------------------	--

I am a responsible, hard-working and motivated seafarer with practical experience as a motorman. I can control and maintain machinery and perform all tasks related to the duties of a motorman. My duties include maintenance and repair of auxiliary engines, fuel systems, pumps, compressors, separators and other important equipment on board. I am confident in working with hand tools, observe safety regulations and regularly carry out inspections to ensure smooth operation of equipment. I am well acquainted with the procedures of watchkeeping in the engine room, work in emergency situations. I quickly adapt to different types of vessels and crews, always striving to ensure smooth and safe operation of the vessel. Cleanliness, discipline and teamwork are the values that I adhere to on board every day. I have experience working under the supervision of engineers, I follow instructions precisely and take the initiative in case of problems. My goal is to develop professionally in the engine room crew and in the future to take the position of third or second engineer. I am physically fit, mentally prepared for long-term contracts and able to work under pressure in difficult marine conditions.

Responsibility, discipline, stress resistance, teamwork, attention to detail
